Head coach Phil Estes will look to re-tool his 2014 squad with a fresh approach after losing 11 starters on offense and seven more on the defensive side of the ball. Estes, who has won three Ivy titles, finished second four times and posted 98 career wins, will put his coaching talents to the test with a youthful lineup.

PROMINENT ALUMNI

2014 BROWN FOOTBALL

Founded back in 1875, the Brown Football Association's mission remains to provide support for the coaches, players, parents, and alumni of a program founded on success and built on tradition. Toward that end, the Association has developed innovative programs that include alumni mentoring and career counseling for players, along with offering continued assistance to the organizational efforts of parents and targeted fundraising to support the coaching staff.

Dedicated in 1925 as Brown University Field, the home of Brown football was built completely by subscription, raised by a committee headed by Clinton Brown, Class of 1900. New aluminum seats were installed in 1978 as part of Operation Pride in marking the 100th anniversary of Brown football.

Prior to building Brown Stadium, home games were played at Adelaide Park in Elmwood or on Lincoln Field, which occupied land then known as Lower Campus. At the turn of the century, a new field was opened off Hope Street, called Andrews Field, in honor of E. Benjamin Andrews, President of Brown from 1889-1898.

Carrying on an intercollegiate athletic tradition over 150 years old, the Brown Bears compete at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics at the NCAA Division I level. As a member of the Ivy League, Brown has one of the nation's broadest arrays of varsity teams, featuring the nation's fourth largest athletic program – 37 in all, 17 for men, 20 for women, the largest athletic program in the nation for women.

For Brown football, giving back to the community is as much a part of coach Phil Estes' program as touchdowns and sacks. Brown Football has reached out to the community in many ways, working with ABC-TV's Extreme Makeover to come to the aid of a family in Warwick, Rhode Island, volunteering in the classroom with inner city children at the Vartan Gregorian Elementary School, and playing a key role in "Be The Match," a national bone marrow donor drive.
